

Aspen Ridge Stables of Duluth will be holding a schooling horse trial for riders interested in learning about horse trials and combined competition. The goal is to introduce eventing in a kind, relaxed, affordable format. Three levels of competition will be offered, a w/t/controlled canter, starter and beginner novice. Each round will be a dressage test, cross country, and stadium round. Scoring is biased on faults, least number wins. We are members of Jack Pine Circuit.

W/T/Controlled Canter . USDF dressage Intro Test A, cross country with slight hill, logs, small jumps all at or under 18", stadium at 18". Not timed.

Starter. USDF dressage intro Test C, cross country with slight terrain over coops, logs, tables, drop at 300m/min. Jumps at or below 24"

Beginner Novice. Will use the USEA BN test B, cross country over logs, coops, drop, fly, ditch, challenging terrain yet interesting and inviting jumps to promote success. Optimum rate is 350m/min. Jumps to 2'7". Stadium at 2'6".
